Kari Reeg our PtHA Director for Zone 3 did not get to this year's convention so will need for sure to attend next year as the Director is not allowed to miss two years.

Points Keepers are Renee Stouffer, Hope Bunn, Jamie Yeager, Kim Bowen (National)– Renee indicated they are going to do their best to get points posted on the web page in a timelier manner.

It was reminded that it is not too early to be soliciting company's for year-end awards – we are encouraged to shop at local stores as much as possible for our awards.

Vicki and Amanda Pflasterer reported that the Web Page has received 3818 hits with 1661 being unique visitors and the Facebook Page reached 803 people in the March 5th to March 11th time span. Amanda has also been posting to some of the open show groups she is a member of.

Vicki said that in the newsletter they are trying to spotlight a member in each edition. We are encouraged to let her know of ANYTHING that could be included in the newsletter in regards to our members, including Birthday's, good report cards, special awards or recognition – these are the things that will make our Newsletter really News worthy.

We will do our pattern books like we did last year and offer them to exhibitors for $5 per pattern book per show.

It was suggested to add the purchase of the pattern book to the Master Entry show so purchases can be tracked and to have a separate entry form on colored paper for the all-breed classes to track who has signed up for those classes. At the Fremont Shows ONLY we would charge a $5.00 jump fee per trailer.

Jean will make sure bedding is available at the Fremont shows.

Renee reported that the handbook has been typed and changes have been made indicating that a committee rather than the show managers will hire the judges and that information on jackpots and futurities will be eliminated. The handbooks will be ready by the first show.

Youth Advisor Jamie Yeager reported that the winner of the Nebraska Pinto Horse logo contest was Paige Bunn and she will receive a FREE shirt with the logo, a FREE stall at the last show and two bags of bedding.

Jamie also handed out a copy of the flyer for the Youth Sponsored show and the form for the new JNPtHA Taking The Lead Community service and club point tracking sheet for youth to track community and club service throughout the year with prizes being awarded at the Banquet for each age group. The Youth will be laminating numbers at the first show for $5.00 for a set of two numbers. The Youth will also be participating in Stall-Decorating; a poster contest and herdmanship awards at the Youth Show and also will be visiting some nursing homes with miniature horses and visiting the Children's Hospital this Fall.

We were reminded that the Zone Rivalry sign up for Youth and Amateurs is April 15th.

The deadline for the application for "Superhorse" is 30 days prior to our Banquet.

Vicki and Amanda Pflasterer are offering stall ID's for $10 each – just contact them for more information.

High point entrants will be paying a $2 fee for signing up for highpoint – this fee will go to the person who tracks the highpoint for that show. Linda Yeager volunteered to track the high point entries.
